Forecast For Highland & Eilean Siar
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 30 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rain or showers. Breezy.

Today:
Cloudy with showers or longer outbreaks of rain, the heaviest and most persistent rain over the Western Highlands. The best of the drier, brighter conditions developing around Inverness and Nairn. Breezy, strong to gale force winds around the west coast. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Most of the showers dying out this evening with clear spells. However, showers or longer outbreaks of rain again overnight, heavy at times with the chance of hail and thunder. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Friday:
Mostly cloudy with showers or longer outbreaks of rain, heavy at times, the chance of hail and thunder. Some drier and brighter spells, the best of these in the east. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Windy at times with bright spells and showers, the showers heaviest and most persistent in the west. The best of the drier, brighter conditions in the east.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.